

Showing and Sharing My Feelings

When someone dies you will have lots of different feelings. Sometimes it can be difficult to put your feelings into words. You can use the picture of a person below to help show your feelings. You could colour where you feel the feeling and talk to the adult with you about how it feels in your body. (eg., if you feel like crying, you could draw or colour the eyes)

